In the article entitled, “Human herpesvirus 6 activates lytic cycle replication of Kaposi’s sarcoma-associated herpesvirus” (Volume 166, pages 173–183 of the January 2005 issue of The American Journal of Pathology; DOI: https://doi.org/10.1016/S0002-9440\(10\)62242-062242-0)), the authors have discovered assembly errors regarding the GAPDH blots in Figure 2C and Figure 6C. Corrected panels have been provided for these two images. This error was discovered by the authors when checking previous raw data. These alterations do not change the conclusions of the paper, and the figure legends for both images are correct as originally published.
